MEMORANDUM

TO: A&S Curriculum Committee
FROM: Carol Lawton
DATE: September 29, 2009
RE: PSY 505 and PSY 526

Psychology is requesting a change in the prerequisites for PSY 505 and PSY 526.

PSY 505 (Mental Measurements) currently has no prerequisites listed. We request that it have a prerequisite of PSY 201 (Statistics), which will ensure that students have some mathematical and statistical background.

PSY 526 (Psycholinguistics) currently has PSY 235 (Child Psychology) and PSY 350 (Abnormal Psychology) listed as prerequisites. This is an error; a correction was requested several years ago but somehow it never went through. We request that PSY 235 and PSY 350 be removed as prerequisites and that instead PSY 120 (Elementary Psychology) be listed as the prerequisite. PSY 120 will provide a general background in psychology that many students, including non-majors, will have already taken.
