Course Policies

Students with Disabilities

If you have a disability and need assistance, special arrangements can be made to accommodate most needs. Contact the Director of Services for Students with Disabilities (Walb Union, Room 113, telephone number 481-6658) as soon as possible to work out the details. Once the Director has provided you with a letter attesting to your needs for modification, bring/send the letter to me. For more information, please visit the web site for SSD at http://www.ipfw.edu/ssd/

Student Conduct Code

Adherence to the Student Conduct Code is expected. This class is based on learning that each person has a unique perspective and viewpoint to share and the contributions that each person makes will help create a learning opportunity for the class. Disagreements may occur, but please use cooperation in maintaining an atmosphere of mutual respect. Hateful, demeaning, and disrespect, including foul language in class or via email will not be tolerated.
Diversity and Non-Discrimination

Statement from the IPFW Student Handbook: "IPFW is committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters tolerance, sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among its members; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. In pursuit of its goal of academic excellence, the university seeks to develop and nurture diversity. The university believes that diversity among its many members strengthens the institution, stimulates creativity, promotes the exchange of ideas, and enriches campus life. IPFW prohibits discrimination against any member of the university community on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin or ancestry, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, disability, or status as a disabled or Vietnam-era veteran."
